A bloody and learful tragedy occurred at Platte City, Mo., on Saturday last. The Radical Convention assembled at the church in Platte City on that day. There were about one handred men, including visiting delegations. The Convention put in normalion a full teken, and adjourned about four o'clock p. m. Just before adjournment the rebels brought a band of nusic upon the street, which played "Divie," "The Bonnie Blue Flag," &c., and soon gathered about them a band of armed men. A Union man, Thos. Dunnigan, being very noisy upon the street, the Sherill went to him and was in the act of queeting him, when a Constable named Calahan, of notorous refer econd, came up with a posse HARDWARE, Stoves and Tinware,

ANOTHER REDEL MASSACRE.

It is not often that we find hasty people willing to make the amende honorable as was the individual mentioned in the following ancedom.—A punctitions regard for the truth is highly to be commended, and below we find a rice some of lonor on one side, with a still neer alcety on the other.

lionor on one side, with a still meer alcety on the other:

A man said to a virage with a loud, masculine voice: "Confound that woman's directle, her voice will reach the fifth story of my house."

The woman, hearing of the remark, insisted that her husband should call on the man, and the man would do neither, the husband was to the man would do neither, the husband was to the man would do neither, the husband was to the man would do neither, the husband was to the man would do neither, the husband was to the man would do neither, the husband was to floating his voice is so loud and masculine it will reach the lifth story of any building. A Soldier's Widow Answers one of Andrew Johnson's Silly Questions. Thun Andrew Johnson's babitual and pompus parade of his alloged sact lifes and suffering yreason of the war, it would be difficult i Additional Law Judge, by reason of the war, It would be difficult to conceive more arrant and contemptible chip-trap. The appeals, in this respect, indeed, almost remind one of the trembling mendicant, who, cap in hand, and out at the eibows, begs his way from deor to door. But the sober truth of his tory is just this: that these thes of wos, peddled by the Presidentral pilerium from pince to place, are purely flettions—the colorize of his own distinct opered imagination. Their faistly is most clied twely exposed in the subjoined letter, addressed to the President himself by the widow of one of the brave men who fell a victim to the slaveholders' rebellion. If the contrast, extorted by the President's silly alterrogatories, homes most fatally to his own protections, he has only limined to blanne:
JOHN P. VINCIONA.

To Mr. Andreo Johnson, President of the United J.T. CHASE, J. BOYD ESPY

plinsell to blame:

To Mr. Andrea Johnson, President of the United States of America:

DEAR SIE: In the speech delivered by you at Cleveland, Ohio, on your way to Chicago, and which, I suppose, was reported correctly, you sake: "Who nade greater sagnifices in the hour than I? Who suffered more than I?" Ac. Now, it Lake for granted that to these questions you expect from some quarter a reply, or you would not save propounded them. So larms my knowledge extends, up to this time, no one has underlaked the task. Therefore, I myself, although but a rey humble woman, scaledy known beyond the street I live in, will venture to furnish an answer. And when I have done so, I will submit it to the just judgment of the world whether, on the score of "sefferings" and "sacrifices" (if there be nothing test), your clause to popular sympathy and support bear any companish to sympathy and support bear any companish to mine.

Bufor the venetion, sir, I had a husband, kind, Several pronument pounds, heades the New Yark Headd, which not long ago night have here properly classed as "demijotnson," have now thrown over not only the President, but his policy, and come out fishly and spatially in favor of the Republican doctrines. The Springfield Republican, which claims to have been consistent throughout to its course, formally abandous both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Beacher, while expressing its opinion that the theory of a speedy admission of the Southern States is in the abstract right. It says: defended by Mr. Beecher. The conductof the President has destroyed both his party and his' policy in the North. The one cannot be as re-spectable or as formidable as was promised, or as was desirable, even as a balance in our politi-cal contests, and the other cannot hope for suc-cess. Both are at present going down half very rapidly; and the blunders and wicketness of the President and some of the Southern people, stond-sing alarm and anxiety throughout the North, the Republican-Union party rises above the mis-sympany and support best any companion to mene.

Before the redection, sir, 1 had a husband, kind, for mysell and our four little once, made confortable provision. Our home was the adode of peace and plenty. What has become of thin? He streved to death at Andersonville, and that by the "chirable" new when your "patley" would fain restore, without repentance, to the head of our store, without repentance, to the head of our store, without repentance, to companion. Since then I have been trying my bust to earn bread for my little once by playing the needle. At times when the Made of consequent E. S. FOWLER & CO.,

known. Adas? One of them permised from exposite and want on Belle Island, and the other had his light and taken off by a rebel shell at Autician. He cannot assist me. The prevations and hardships I bave had to endure have so shattered my own health madstength, that I feel, at times, anable even to endure the fatigue of plying the anadic. So that, except my trust in a mercial foot, I have scribled for my commy my Athe-harshand, brothers house, home, living—and I am east a hegger, on the cold charty of the world! And all this I owe to the Sauthern slave-holders, and to their infugitions attempt to murder my beloved country, as they did murder my husband and my brothers.

Now, Mr. Johnson, since you have a comparison, what have you suffered? Exhibit yoursers, and wounds, and bruises! Did you lose a leg of an arm, or were you are so much us scratched or bruised? Where is the blood you shou? Would it stain a white cambric pocked tandleathiet? How much property did you lose? Why, if reput is peaks true, during most of the film of the war you were. Dy fullon bayonets. Out of Code Sam's overflowing commissary stores you deew pleuty to eat and to drink—the best of meets, and, what was of still more consequence to you, the choicest of pinors. Add to this your handsome sulary as milliany governor. Then the great Union party, when you have since so fortily bothy my have you have since so fortily bothy my with "scan." The receilion lound you, I learn, comparatively a poor man. Now you are tich, with a sound body, not to speak of your mind, whose soundness is not so ecetain. the people, and that it gains no strength from the manner in which he is commending it to his bearers on the tout to St. Louis and return. Anothersignificant fact is to be noticed. The Republicancandidate for Covernor was a tried and honored soldier of the late war. His opportant was an auti-war Democrat. Previsty this state of allalis certain.

For, Andrew Johnson, talk of your sacrifices and your sufficings, and challenge a comparison. Fig. de upon you! Why, sir, on that score, I ought to be America's Gueen, and you ought to be sweating over the wast tab! Ands now, sir, me yong questions as to who suffered more than you, who sacrificed more than you, by reason of the sur, unswered? I did, sir, and I know hundreds of poor women, tossed from the heights of afflicence into the vale of pourry and want, who have suffered and sacrificed ten thousand those are and who are making no one right to "talk polities" now-a-days it is the men be conquired the Rubellion, and hence we commend every gathering which has for its object the reconstruction of the Union upon terms which do not dishonor the patriotic sperifices of the North during the war. We have read with gratification the proceedings of the Soldiers' Mass Convention in Rachester, N. Y., on Monday ening. In the work of its organization, th lice-Presidents of the Convention were selected from each as had lost an arm or a leg in battle. and when the maimed heroes hobbled forward it was found that the spacious platform would scarcely accommodate them with scats! That meeting declared that the political conflict which now agitates the country was but another edition of the question we met upon the battle field, and that it is no part of the duty of a loyal soldier to help elect to office men who believe it he reconstruction of the Union upon the rebel plan! That meeting endorsed Congress as the representatives of the loyal people; they endorsed the Philadephia Loyal Southern Convention, and pledged it their support; and they further declared it the duty of Union Soldiers to show to the world that in punishing treason we can be as effective with the ballet as we eyer were with the ballet. We hope that every honorably disrharged soldier in Eastern Crawford will co-ape rate for the sucress of the Mendville Convention, and that the Soldiers' and Sallors' Club of Titus ville will attend in a body. They arrive, as a natural consequence of such centiments, at the headquarters of the Copperhead Rebel party, and must (a la Mr. Ami) begin to doubt their own identity as Union men and patriots; and if they have any honesty left, they must begin to reason in this wise: "Am La Union man, or am I not a Union man; if I am a Union man, where am 1: if I am not a Union man, what In the name of Liberty am 17" and the logitininte answer must be-a Disunionist and a Cop perhead. For the road of the Copperjohnson party is but the road to ruin, and no Union loying man can follow it without having all his political honesty and patriotism destroyed. It is the old question over again. The South consequence than the country. Tyranny re Freedom - Aristocracy 13. Democracy-the ambillon of the few against the rights of the many. Not content to accept the decisions of the war and to come back on an canality with the North-Rebel party demand that the ten rebel States shall return to the Union with all their old fendal rights and immunities, without giving any guarantees or security for the Inture, or showing any repentance for the past. They desire traitors to reassume at once the whole control of the State overnments, and re-enslave, if they choose, the ham Lincoln gloriously enuncipated; to give them power; to saddle the rebel debt upon the shoulders of the Northern people, and, if possible, to repudiate our national debt incurred in putting down this most infernal rehellion. If this is not so, why are they so opposed to the Constitutional Amendment proposed by Congress? Why must Union men and disabled soldiers be turned out of office, to be replaced by Copperheads and rebels? Why are they so anxious for the spoils? Why are the freedmen le and batred at the North?

the whole of that unfortunate race whom Abra-cannot now be the policy of any Union man, as it never was or could be the polley of our beloved martyred President Wittle Gen. Grant was in Philadelphia a Johnsouth told him that Clymer would get the larger part of the soldlers' vote. The General replied in think you will be mistaken in that, Clymer is a Copperhead, and the soldler who votes for him will disguace hinself and the flag he fought under "Pittsburgh Commercial".

There is no honorably discharged soldier in Titusville who will dispute this proposition. The soldiers will vote right. They don't vote for mer who fought them in the rear while they were fighting the enemy in front. They won't vote for Clymer, for that reason. They won't vote for McCalmont, because he supports Clymer and stands on the same Copperhead platform. They are birds of a feather and train together.

The morning otherwise would have done so; but as It was, there were probably three or four thousand per sons gathered around the speakers' stand, and quother thousand were packed into the courtcoom to hear Governor Cuttin. The speeche were all good; I suppose very much the same in style and matter as were delivered in Titus-ville the previous day. Of the different adquent, Gov. Curtiu's the most effective, Colone McKee's the most energetle, Mr. Penniman's the nost compact and logical. General Geary's re most compact and logical. General Grary's re-inarls were hardly long enough to entitle them to be called a speech. It is difficult for him to speak loud on account of an old wound in the broast, so that he contented binnelf with informing his hearers that he stood flat-fronted on the him, while he endorsed heartily the reconstrucception he has met in this vicinity. The meetings at Eric. Titusville, Meadville and Oil City were so large and enthusiastic that they prove annistakeably how well the good cause speeds on its way. The meetings at Eric and Titus file of course largely interfered with the one held here, the delegates from the Western and Eastern parts of the county who would have attended this going to them. The Oil City mass meeting, cess. An immense crowd was present from all no exaggeration. One of the Vice-Presidents of the meeting came that distance expressly to at-tend it.
